Chatham County Receives FEMA Individual Assistance Declaration

SAVANNAH, GA (October 18, 2016) – The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has granted Chatham County a declaration of Individual Assistance. With this declaration comes assistance to small businesses as well.

Individual Assistance aids homeowners without insurance and opens programs to insured owners.

FEMA will set up disaster relief centers throughout Chatham County. Please keep in mind, this will take several days or more to establish support services. Please be patient and information will be distributed when the resources are ready to support.
