Reclaiming Pets

Savannah, GA – (October 10, 2016) Residents who sheltered your pets during evacuation for Hurricane Matthew are welcome to reclaim their pets from the Chatham County Animal Services on Wednesday October 12, 2016 from 12 noon until 5:00 pm. “Our staff is happy to provide this service at no cost to residents, we support the pets returning home safely”, stated Kerry Sirevicius, Director of Chatham County Animal Services. The Animal Services facility is located at 7211 Sally Mood Drive (near Chatham County Health Department). Proof of ownership is requested, photos contained within mobile phone is sufficient. For additional information please contact Animal Services @ 912-652-6575. Please be mindful that pet owners should ensure drinking water is safe for pets to drink and any food that may have been contaminated by floodwaters should be disposed of.
